

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

STANFORD, KY.

Tuesday Morning, December 20, 1881.

LOCAL NOTICES.

New and full stock of Clocks at Penny & McAlister's.

Some nice old country hams for Christmas at A. Owsley's.

HAMILTON'S STRENGTH always on hand at A. Owsley's.

FRESH RAISINS, currants, citron, candies, etc., at A. Owsley's.

Big stock of Champion Barbed Wire on hand at Asher Owsley's.

For medicinal purposes buy a bottle of 10-year-old Whisky from McRoberts & Stagg.

MARGARET Toilet Sets, Vases, Writing Desks and holiday presents of all kinds at Penny & McAlister's.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS, watches, jewelry and silverware in great variety, and cheaper than ever at Penny & McAlister's.

Go to Penny & McAlister's for your holiday gifts. Santa Claus has established his headquarters there, with presents useful and beautiful.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. L. BEASLEY continues very ill. —Miss BESSIE FOSTER is with Mrs. S. P. Stagg.

—Miss MOLLIE JOHNSTON, of Lancaster, is visiting Mrs. B. G. Alford.

—Miss FLORENCE THURMONT went to Lancaster, yesterday afternoon.

—Miss STELLA MARGARET, of Lancaster, is a guest of the Misses Richards.

—Mr. TIM W. HIGGINS came up from Louisville, yesterday, to spend the holidays.

—Miss BELLE CHENAU, of Louisville, honored the link with her presence Friday night.

—Mrs. ISABELLA HUGHES, of Bloomington, Ill., is on a visit to relatives and friends here.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. SEVERANCE returned yesterday from a visit to Mr. John Severeance, in Lebanon.

—Col. W. G. WELCH, J. W. Alcorn and Judge M. C. Stagg have gone to Liberty to defend Sam Williams.

—Mrs. W. C. BAILEY left yesterday to join her husband at Dadeville, Alabama, where he has located for the winter.

—Prof. ASHER ROWERS, and R. W. Rucker, Esq., returned from a pleasant visit to Lebanon, Saturday. Judging from the broad smile that lit up their countenances, they must have heard something good.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Eggs at Hale & Nunnally's.

FRESH boiled meat at McAlister & Bright's.

FRESH CANDIES and oranges at Hale & Nunnally's.

Ornithers for Christmas at Hale & Nunnally's.

Call and get a case of Saddle Rock oysters at Hale & Nunnally's.

Big Stock New Orleans sugar just received at Hale & Nunnally's.

We have received a beautiful stock of Silk Handkerchiefs and Lace Neck wear for the holidays. McAlister & Lytle.

CHRISTMAS will soon be here. McAlister & Bright will be headquarters for cheap toys, confectionaries and fruits, and "don't you forget it."

The construction train ran into a hand car near the crossing of Knob Lick Pike, Saturday, entirely demolishing the car but doing no other serious damage.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—J. L. Goode, merchant, who recently moved from Milledgeville, made an assignment Friday, to Geo. W. Bobbitt, for the benefit of his creditors. Liability about $1,400; assets in goods, notes and accounts, probably, $1,000.

MR. GARE RABNEY accidentally drove a nail clear through his thumb, Friday, and an inch into the plank beneath. Fortunately, it did not strike the bone, and with his pocket knife, he cut the flesh and released himself from the painful situation.

CASEY COURT.—The case of Samuel Holmes for shooting Ed Davidson, was continued by the Commonwealth.

COUNSEL for S. M. Williams for killing Burns, announced themselves ready, and by agreement, a jury was ordered to be summoned from Boyle, and trial set to commence yesterday.

THE SUPPER.—The Presbyterian ladies are making great preparations for their supper, which will be given on Friday night. The charge for every thing, will be 75 cents for each grown person, and 35 cents for children under 12 years, the menu including mince, oyster soup, salads, cake, nuts, candies and ice. Assist in a good cause, by helping the ladies, and at the same time give yourself the pleasure of a tip-top supper.

HOMER KILLED.—Saturday night at Dadeville, a runaway horse belonging to Brewer collided with Wakefield's Omnibus team, driving the shaft of the vehicle to which he was attached eighteen inches into the breast of the off horse, from which he died shortly after reaching the stable. Wakefield claims damages from Brewer to the amount of the value of the horse, while Brewer thinks he ought to recover the damages done his vehicle.

OUR SWIM SETTLERS.—The sale of the Martin lands announced some time since, failed, because Mrs. Martin refused to sign the deed, and the Swiss gentlemen had to look elsewhere for homes. Mr. John Von Grunigen has bought the Noland place of James Coffey, 110 acres, for $2,500, and the others have bought Miller & Vandevor's Green River farm of 340 acres, for $1,700. There are now four families located in the country, and they tell us that two more families will be here to find homes in a few days. Those here are hard working and thrifty looking men, and we are glad to have them settle in our midst. Persons having farms to sell might do well to make it known in this paper.

The best cigars in town at Hale & Nunnally's. Two for five cents.

Just received at McAlister & Bright's a fresh supply of Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Cocoa nuts, California Peas, etc.

Don't forget the Post Office store when you come in to buy your candies, nuts, raisins, oranges, and such, for Christmas.

Be sure to read the advertisements in this issue, especially that of Bruce & Co. There is the largest and best stock of goods in the country.

Mr. J. T. HARRIS has gone to Louisville to lay in a complete stock for his green Grocery. He proposes to have everything that is good to eat for his customers Christmas.

The New Steam Mill, Mattingly, McAlister & Co., will begin to grind wheat for their customers on Thursday. The grist mill has been in successful operation for several weeks.

The crank that misrepresents the Ninth Kentucky District in Congress has had another crank named Leth, appointed mail agent on the Knoxville Branch. It is a shame that ought not to be tolerated.

Col. FRANK WOLFORD, having been assisted by Mr. Barnes for a cure of his wounds, the Courier-Journal suggests that the other candidates for Appellate Clerk be baptised in oil, immediately. It looks like even that precaution will hardly avail.

Another large and happy crowd was present at the link, Friday night, including many from a distance. Next Friday night all the skaters will mask and appear in fancy costumes and great preparations are being made to make the evening a big success.

CITY COURT.—Stephen Broughton, of Laurel, came here Friday, in search of a man who had robbed his bar-room, and finding his trip in vain, decided to have a little fun. He got riproisiously drunk, and tried to take the town, but Jim Nunnally and Allen Beatty ran him in, and after a night in jail, City Judge Hill fined him $5 and costs.

The ladies who mask on the night of the 23d are requested to meet at St. Asaph Hotel at 6:30 o'clock and they will be escorted from there in a body to the Hall at 7 o'clock, where they will be admitted and provided with skates free of charge. The gentlemen will assemble at J. W. Hayden's store at same hour where they will secure tickets and skates.

At the Primary Election in Mercer, Mr. Jud. W. Pulliam, brother of John G. Pulliam, late a compositor in this office, was re-nominated for Assessor, by a large majority. Speaking of candidates reminds us that there does not seem to be that itch for office in this county as was shown four years ago. By this time there were a dozen candidates out for Assessor, half dozen for Jailor, and so on.

MAIL DELAYED.—Owing to the wreck of a freight train on the main stem near Shepherdsburg, Saturday, whereby the company lost considerably, the passenger train did not arrive here from Louisville till about 7 P. M. This threw many of our citizens out of their mail that night but Mr. A. A. Warren with his accustomed cleverness kept the Post Office open for an hour or so Sunday morning, for their accommodation.

The difficulties that have attended the getting out of this issue must be our excuse for any of its shortcomings. With but two days to go on we have taken down the old press and set up a new one, the mechanism of which our business manager, who has superintended its setting up, was entirely unfamiliar. The consequence was that we did not get to press on our outside last night till 2 o'clock. The inside did not get to press till 6 o'clock this morning.

SOME time ago Mr. Grundy, of the Pine Hill Coal Company brought suit against the managing partner, Mr. C. Crooke for his share of $10,000, alleging that the company had made $40,000 and he was entitled to a fourth. The suit was brought in Booneville, but Grundy gave notice that he would apply to Judge Owsley, who is now holding court in Casey, for a receiver to be placed in charge of effects of the Company. Yesterday Mr. Crooke, with his attorney, Col. Sam. M. Burdett and his ex-clerk, Mr. W. A. Burnside, passed through town en route to Liberty for the purpose of resisting the petition.

BODIES REMOVED.—Owing to the fact that the Owsley lot in the Cemetery was smaller than the family desired, and there being no chance to enlarge it, Dr. J. B. and Mr. Asher Owsley purchased a double lot in another part of the grounds, and on Friday, had the bodies of Mr. W. P. Owsley and his two children, removed to it. The box containing the coffin of Mr. Owsley, who was buried in the early part of 1874, was entirely rotten, and the coffin so much decayed as to be difficult to handle. The box and coffin of Chancy Owsley, buried about a year ago, was in good condition, and the body much better preserved than would be imagined. The earth was very dry, showing that the decay of the boxes was not caused by water accumulating in them.

GAVE LEG BAIL.—County Attorney Miller went out to Waynesburg Saturday to prosecute Wm. G. Gooch for stabbing James Eubanks and succeeded in having him held to the Circuit Court for malicious wounding. He was put in the custody of Constable Ellison who in turn put him in charge of another man from whom Gooch escaped with but little trouble or show of resistance on the part of the valiant guard. While in town Mr. Miller learned that one Plessa, Routen had been selling liquor to minors and accordingly had him arrested but pending the preparations for his examination, he also gave leg bail and is still at large. Constable Ellison should be just a little more particular in handling men accused of crime. If he can't stay with them himself he ought to put guards over them that will hold or shoot them dead on the spot.

THERE has been no new developments in the Post Office matter. Mr. Alford has the appointment, but he had not been confirmed at the adjournment of Congress yesterday. We should not be surprised if a new man altogether will handle the mails at this point.

MARRIAGES.

PICKLES.—CARTER.—At Mr. James G. Phelps, on the 17th, Mr. Martin E. Phelps, an infant of 19, was united in marriage to Miss Mattie S. Carter, a daughter of the same age.

RELIGIOUS.

—It was a mean thing in Kentuckians to permit "Pink Cottage" to be sold to satisfy a paltry mortgage. As a "Faith Cure" it attracted more attention to the State than any other ten attractions within our borders. —[Lan. Democrat.]

—The story that Rev. J. M. Bruce had gone into the Sewing Machine business, is untrue. He is devoting his whole time, outside of his ministerial duties, to getting a wife, and the report may have originated from the gossips with which he has learned to talk of sewing machines and other domestic matters.

—Mrs. H. T. Harris visited Lebanon last week, at the solicitation of several warm friends of the Pink Cottage Faith Cure, to pray for the afflicted there. She went to Richmond on Friday last, having received pressing invitations from a number of believers in the efficacy of prayer, to restore the body as well as heal the soul.

DEATHS.

—Lottie, a seven-months-old child of J. Mac Smith, died Saturday, of brain fever.

—REYNOLDS.—On Friday last, of the fearful fever that is raging in the vicinity of McKinney, Mr. Stephen Reynolds, father of Mr. Geo. Reynolds.

—CARTER.—Eld. Jos. Ballou was called Saturday to preach the funeral sermon of Mr. G. A. Carter, who died near Parkersville, the day before. Mr. Carter had, after a hard day's work, eaten a hearty supper and upon arising from the table fell over and in a few moments was dead. The doctors say his death was caused by an affection of the brain.

—FARRIS.—The remains of Mrs. Nancy Farris, mother of Mr. R. R. Gentry, Sr., arrived here yesterday from Sedalia, Mo., and were consigned to the earth in Buffalo Cemetery. She had made her home at her son's for years, but in October last went to visit relatives in Missouri. She was in her 83d year and her death is supposed to have resulted from pneumonia.

—REID.—After a confinement to her bed for over six months, during which she suffered intensely, yet without murmuring, with Solitude, Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of John M. Reid, breathed her last at 9 o'clock, on the morning of the 18th, aged 50 years. Some five years ago, she professed religion under the preaching of Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, and connected herself with the Presbyterian church, of which she has since been a most earnest and devoted member. Perfectly conscious of her approaching end, she talked with confidence of a blissful hereafter, and urged her husband and children to strive to meet her at the Great White Throne, there to sing the songs of the redeemed forever. A kind neighbor and a loving and affectionate mother and wife, her loss to weeping friends and relatives is irreparable, but they mourn not as those without hope, for they have the blessed assurance that their loss is her everlasting gain. But even this can not keep back the tears of regret, nor entirely assuage the grief of earthly parting. We extend to the family our sincerest sympathy, but more especially to the children, for we too, have known the terrible pain of giving up a precious mother. The remains will be interred in Buffalo Cemetery at 11 o'clock this morning.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Chicago packers have slaughtered 1,250,000 hogs since November 1.

—The cotton crop for the present season is estimated at 4,900,000 bales.

—A Montgomery man has just sold a hog for $40.30. It weighed 640 lbs.

—Valentine W. Gentry has sold his farm of 240 acres, to R. R. Gentry, John Land and Son, and a gentleman from Casey for $40 per acre.

—The official return of the vote in Virginia gives repudiation Cameron, for Governor, 12,715 majority.

—The Richmond Register reports the sale of a 4-year-old Jack at $810, and a 5-year-old Jack and two Jennets for $1,415.

—Dr. F. J. Dickerson sold to Mr. Jason Walker and Mrs. Florence Walker, his farm of 470 acres on Silver Creek, at $30 per acre, or nearly $17,000.

—Gen. R. M. Gano has sold his farm near Centerville, in this county, containing 242 acres, to Mr. Horace Hildreth, of Fayette county, for $16,000 cash—about $60.50 per acre. It is said that the General intends returning to his father's farm and engaging extensively in the business of raising short-horn cattle. —[Paris Sun.]

LINCOLN COUNTY.

—Born, to Mrs. G. M. Givens, on the 16th, a daughter.

—Married, on the 15th inst., Martin Phelps and Miss Mattie S. Carter.

—Pat Conway has sold to F. Yowell, about 80 acres of land—part of the Cooper tract—for $3,750.

—The Knights of Honor set out an oyster supper on the evening of the 16th. Thanks for the bid; but had to "haste to the wedding."

—Boyle county is expected to precipitate itself upon Liberty, to-day, in the form of possible jurors to try the case of Sam. M. Williams.

—Died, at the residence of his son, near McKinney, on the 17th, Mr. Stephen Reynolds, an old and well known citizen of this county. Disease, gangrene.

—I learn that an Eastern party has applied to the Legislature of Kentucky, for a charter to construct a railroad from Flat Rock, on the C. & S. to the Falls of Cumberland.

—As it should be.—The officials of the Christian church have recalled their former faithful pastor, Ed. W. L. Williams.

—The Baptists have made arrangements to build a church in this place immediately.

—Mr. Thos. Cecil has donated a lot for the purpose, adjoining the Masonic Lodge.

—There was a party at Will Powell's on Friday night. On the return, as reported several huggies became refractory, and several horses were upset—no body hurt—can't account for the unusual catastrophe. Technical terms are contagious. I asked Dr. Brown's Dick, what was the doctor's last report as to a certain patient. Dick drew out his face to extra professional longitude, and replied "Very low, Sir. His pulse is normal, and his prostration, or his respiration is normal—a very serious case, sir."

—Mr. W. H. Smith is paying a dying visit to Lancaster. John M. Logan is ruralizing here for a few days, preparatory, I think, to a "drumming" campaign during the holidays, with a full line of instrumental projects. Jim Allen purchased a heavy lot of hogs while the price was high enough to make the thing respectable; he is now getting even by converting them into pork—hence, Hustonville can boast a packing establishment. Jim Goode mourns the loss of a fine huffer, killed last week by a train on the C. & S.

—I used to think that the advertising of a great evangelical circus, and moral messenger, was simply a pious dodge to attract religious spectators, but am satisfied now, that there is something in it. A late number of the Enquirer gives the record of the organization of a National Society for the encouragement of the elegant, intellectual and improving pastime of cock-fighting, wherein, at the end of a long code of laws setting forth the ethics of trimming, breeding, pitting, etc., it is solemnly announced that any one using rude or profane language shall be immediately ejected from the ring.

—Of course each scribbler on the interior is expected to renew his "how to an indulgent public" this morning. Well, we bow! We bow to the editor, also, and to his wife, and to Stanford, and—were it not for some unwhimsical facial developments—would feel like bowing to our own reflection in the glass. So much for the pluralis majestatis. I am glad that I am able in this initial number of the JOURNAL in new form, to give a more cheerful health-record than has appeared from this quarter of late. It is true that Mrs. Lucinda Hocker is simply waiting for the hour of her departure. But as to the other cases: The symptoms in that of F. M. Ware are flattering. There is a manifest improvement in the condition of Mrs. Ben Hawkins—Mrs. John Ellis and Mrs. Matt Wright, are mending. Mrs. E. S. Pow all is better, and Mr. Marshall Powell, about well. Mrs. W. R. Williams is able to ride out.

IN MEMORIAM.

Full obituary in June Nov. 25th, 1881. Bath, daughter of Fielding and S. H. Thompson.

The devoted and true daughter of her parents, the late Mrs. W. L. Williams, when she was about thirteen years old, and throughout her Christian life of ten years her love for her father and her faith in his precious promises remained undiminished, while her convictions of right and wrong deepened in earnestness as she grew in years.

She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, a kind neighbor, a true friend, and a faithful servant of her God. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother. She was a true daughter of her father, and a true friend of her mother.

The Latest Improved
Prize Domes
Saw and Lathes
J. WATROUS, 40 & 42 Arcade, Cin. O.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE!

VALUABLE LAND!

LINCOLN CIRCUIT COURT, JOHN AND E. Bright's Heirs, vs. John and E. Bright's Heirs, Deeds, in Equity.

By virtue of a judgment in the above styled case, rendered at the October Term, 1881, of the Lincoln Circuit Court, I will, on

MONDAY, JAN. 2, 1882,

Before the Court-House door in the town of Stanford, Ky., between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., publicly